

How is it that Congress will allow anything on the internet, but feels the need to control everything else. could it be that money from large lobbyiest is far more important than the rights of the people of this nation. If you want to know why so many people are disgusted with our goverment just look in a mirror! Leave satelite radio alone! there is absolutely no reason to limit what it can or cannot broadcast in favor of the NAB. if they feel threatened, they can improve their service. Ralph Santos
